Hi Alexandra,

I hope this email finds you well and safe during this challenging time. I am reaching out regarding your application for the Resident Director position in the Office of Housing & Residential Life at Wentworth Institute of Technology. At this time, we are not proceeding with the interview process for the anticipated position. We anticipate proceeding with the search in the upcoming weeks and will be in touch to candidates with qualifications that best meet the needs of the position at that time.

Our professional staff search committee understands that you may be in other position searches, so we wanted to be transparent about this postponement to the search process.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out.

Best regards,
Jackie
