

Beginning Farmer Resource Network of Maine

Announcements

COVID-19 Information for Agriculture and Food Businesses

Published: April 09, 2020

Penn State Extension Offering Free Courses

Published: April 06, 2020

Opportunities for Earning Your Pesticide Recertification Credits Online

Published: April 03, 2020

Maine Small Business Development Center Resources

Published: April 02, 2020

COVID-19 and Maine Ag FAQ

Published: March 31, 2020

New England Grassroots Environmental Fund

Published: March 31, 2020

Interim Guidance for Essential Agriculture Businesses

Published: March 31, 2020

American Farmland Trust Farmer Relief Fund

Published: March 30, 2020

Maine Department of Agriculture, Conservation & Forestry Covid-19 Resource Page

Published: March 30, 2020

USDA Implements Immediate Measures to Help Rural Residents, Businesses and Communities Affected by COVID-19

Published: March 30, 2020

USDA Continues Focus on Service During COVID-19 Outbreak

March 23, 2020 | Announcements

The U.S. Department of Agriculture continues to be open for business to provide services to the American people. While USDA has moved to an enhanced telework posture during the Coronavirus National Emergency, services to the American people continue. For additional information, please visit the press release here.

Share this:

Beginning Farmer Resource Network of Maine

Tel: 207.353.5550 or 800.287.1458 (in Maine)
tori.jackson@maine.edu

