

“Mentoring is a brain to pick, an ear to listen, and a push in the right direction.” John Crosby

Find your Mentor.

You identify your goals. We provide resources and support.

Your colleagues share their expertise.

Together we create a mentoring community that advances your career, and enhances faculty satisfaction.

Join us to hear more about Targeted Mentoring

Date: Tuesday, October 16, 2012

Time: 2 – 3 pm

Location: Bangor Room, Memorial Union

What is targeted mentoring?

- Facilitating the career advancement of junior faculty by providing support and guidance in specific areas identified by the mentee
- Minimizes the time commitment while maximizing the impact

Who can apply for a mentor?

- New and junior faculty seeking to increase professional skills and competencies
- Non-tenure track faculty, part time faculty, lecturers and instructors

Who are the mentors?

- Senior faculty with diverse experience in teaching, research and public service

How do I apply for a mentor?

- Attend the informational session on OCTOBER 16 in the Bangor Room*
- Visit the ADVANCE Rising Tide website to identify topics of interest and potential mentors www.umaine.edu/advancerisingtide/mentoring/

* Those unable to attend the informational session on October 16 can still participate.

Please call Angela Hart at 581-3439 for more information, or visit our website at the address above to view application materials.

