Hi Jeff,

One more example from Honors preceptor Katie Quirk using the David Brooks' essay and the student responses.

Hi Melissa,

This is the prompt. It's a modified version of the Honors prompt and Sharon's prompt.These are the excerpts from students' essays--same as what I sent you before, though I'm sending it again so you have the prompt and responses all in one email.Take care,

Hi,

Can you share the prompt you gave the students, and any instructions you provided? I don't want to assume it is the same as Sharon's.

Apologies if you already did. I am drowning in email as my inbox of unread messages grows each day despite my best efforts.

Thanks,

Melissa
