What is the latest guidance about wearing face coverings on campus, and at UMaine offices and facilities statewide?

April 30, 2021 | Faculty, staff and students, Health and safety, Spring semester information and updates, Summer information and updates

Required: Face coverings are required at all times when indoors on University property or in University administered facilities. More details, exceptions and information are below. This applies to anyone present: students, staff, faculty, guests and all other individuals.

Recommended: Face coverings are recommended but not required when outdoors in circumstances that make physical distancing difficult to maintain.

Not needed: Face coverings are not required when outdoors in circumstances when physical distancing is readily maintained.

More information is on the UMS Together for Maine website.
