Dear Matthew,

Here are this week's Six Picks to keep you connected to the world of performing arts. Find more links like these on our website. Enjoy!

Irish Rovers & the Six-String Soldiers

Sat., March 13, 7 p.m.

Celebrate St. Patrick's Day with the Irish Rovers! They're excited to be playing with their old friends the Six-String Soldiers, the most followed military music group in the world. Enjoy a musical tour of The Emerald Isle with both groups. Here's a look at the last time they were together.

Bartók to Beethoven

Thursday, March 18, 7:30 p.m.

Experience the peerless artistry of CMS with newly curated full-length HD concerts featuring archival video recordings woven together into never-before-heard concert pairings. Intermission will feature a Q&A with the artists.

An Irish Music Stream for St. Patrick's Day

Wed., March 17

In honor of the St. Patrick's Day season, Folk Alley has assembled 12+ hours of music by some favorite Irish musicians. You'll hear a mix of familiar and new artists, including Danú (who has performed on our stage four times!) and many others. Enjoy!

Ireland with Michael – A Virtual Concert

Wed, March 17, 7 p.m.

Aiken Performing Arts presents the ethereal voice of top Irish tenor Michael Londra, backed by the Irish Concert Orchestra, two nationally acclaimed choirs (Valda Choir and The Presentation Children's Choir), and top-class guest singers and musicians from Ireland. The show also steps out into the Irish villages and countryside to meet local traditional singers, dancers and musicians. Tickets will be valid for 48 hours starting at 7:00pm on March 17.

Vanya and Sonia and Masha and Spike

Begins Thurs., March 18, 7 p.m.

Revived from the Lincoln Center Theater archives, this is a recording of the Tony Award-winning play by Master of comedy, Christopher Durang. This is what happens when you take characters and themes from Chekhov, pour them into a blender and mix them up! Sigourney Weaver, David Hyde Pierce and Kristine Nielsen are featured in this utterly hilarious play set in present day Bucks County, Pennsylvania.

Reflections on a Year Without Theater: An Oral History of the Broadway Shutdown

Read anytime

This is the 7th installment from Theater Mania, taking a interesting look inside the lives of those who work on Broadway. Read opinions about what it will take to reopen the industry and the things they miss in the last section of this oral history project.

Bonus pick!

BONUS!

How to enjoy St. Patrick's Day at home with a Guinness, Irish music and some well-chosen snacks

Read now to prepare for March 17!

Guinness Brewery offers tips for a fun St. Patrick's Day celebration with festive food pairings and other suggestions. Learn about pouring the perfect pint, pairing the beer with snacks and cooking with it. If you like music by Irish punk bands (think Dropkick Murphys!), check out the streaming concert link.

AN ON-CAMPUS SHOUT OUT

Anthropological Perspectives on Diversity and Inclusion Panel Discussion

March 17, 7 p.m.

Zoom in for a panel discussion featuring archaeologists and cultural and physical anthropologists who represent efforts to promote equity, diversity and inclusion.

Please consider...

We know there are many organizations and individuals out there asking for financial support. The CCA would appreciate your consideration. If you can't help right now, we understand. But when the time comes — and it will come — even if you can't make an outright donation, we hope you'll buy tickets and support live performances at the CCA. Thank you!
