2nd place
ETHAN HO

3rd place
GERRY WRIGHT

Here are Six Picks to keep you connected to the world of performing arts. Find more links like these on our website. Enjoy!

Juneteenth

Juneteenth is here, and the theatre industry is celebrating with a slate of virtual programming honoring Black culture, theatre, dance, and more. See all the options and be sure to check out what's streaming at The Met and on the Criterion Channel.

The Shows Must Go On - Peter Pan Live!

Friday, June 19 at 2 p.m. for 48 hours only!

'Peter Pan Live!' was originally scheduled to air last week, but the channel postponed the production to show support for Black Lives Matter protests in the aftermath of George Floyd's death. Now it's ready for viewing.

From the Vault

This full-length concert celebrates Dizzy Gillespie Jazz, recorded at Lincoln Center Orchestra with Wynton Marsalis.

There is No Standing Still

The first in a series, this is a 5-minute video created with Alonzo King LINES Ballet dancers from their homes throughout the Americas during the pandemic. Read more.

Thank you for the Music

Remember when the Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain performed at the Collins Center? Enjoy a mini performance here!

Magic occurs when man plays piano in a busy station

The happiest 7 minutes of your week starts here!

Here's the latest installment in our Show Stuff series.

Important --

Please complete our survey!

We're asking you to participate to give us anonymous feedback that will help us provide you and all our patrons with the best experience possible!

TAKE SURVEY

Finally, please keep the performing arts alive -- please keep singing, learning, practicing, watching, helping and doing whatever makes you happy!

This is an intermission for us -- we'll be back as soon as we can.
