

Matthew Revitt <matthew.revitt@maine.edu>

Six Picks for moms!

1 message

Collins Center for the Arts <CCA@cca.collinscenterforthearts.com>

Fri, May 7, 2021 at 10:47 AM

To: "Matthew," <matthew.revitt@maine.edu>

theatre here - opera there - music everywhere!

Click to view in web browser

Dear Matthew,

Here are this week's Six Picks – a curated list of virtual events to keep you connected to the world of performing arts. Find more links like these on our website. Enjoy!

Met Opera - weekend options Sat., & Sun., May 8 & 9

Two operas for you to enjoy this weekend!

May 8:
Puccini's Madama Butterfly

May 9: Handel's Agrippina

Each stream becomes available at 7:30 p.m. and remains accessible for on-demand viewing until 6:30 p.m. the following day. See more listings

Horszowski Trio Sun, May 9 at 10 p.m. and Thurs., May 13, at 9 p.m.

Described as "the most compelling American group to come on the scene" (The New Yorker), the Horszowski Trio has become a vital force in the international chamber music world. Since its debut in 2011, the trio has toured extensively worldwide, traversing the vast traditional piano trio repertoire as well as premiering new commissions. Based in New York City, the trio is Ensemble-in-

42nd Street May 12 - 18, 2021

Captured live from the London stage and directed by the original author of the show, Mark Bramble, 42nd Street is one of Broadway's most classic and beloved tales. Full of crowd-pleasing tap dances, popular musical theatre standards including "Lullaby of Broadway," "We're in the Money," "42nd Street" and more, plus show-stopping ensemble production numbers. Not to be missed!

here!

Residence at the Longy School of Music of Bard College.

Behind The Curtain: Mendelssohn and Schubert
Thurs., May 13, 8 p.m.

Julie Coucheron joins Atlanta Symphony Orchestra conductor Peter Oundjian for the glittering Piano Concert No. 1 by Felix Mendelssohn. The program opens with the second movement of Florence Price's melodic String Quartet No. 2 and concludes with Franz Schubert's Symphony No. 5.

John Cleese
Available through May 31

Filmed live onstage in London's Cadogan Hall. Don't miss John Cleese as he examines the dysfunctional world we live in and "Why There Is No Hope." Though Cadogan Hall was empty due to Covid, John's presentation was full of laughs and hilarious insights. Here's a trailer, as only John Cleese can deliver!

Italy's vaccine promotion
Watch anytime!

Helen Mirren has joined forces with an Italian comic for a hilarious sketch to encourage locals to get the Covid vaccine. The Oscar winner appeared in the fun clip with comedian Checco Zalone, who falls madly in love with her upon learning she's had the jab and launches into a passionate tune in her honor. (It's in Italian, but you'll enjoy the video nonetheless!

Bonus pick!

The 31 Best Mother's Day Movies You Can Watch While Bonding With Your Mama

Movies are full of memorable mothers: great moms, terrible moms, heroic moms, terrifying moms. While Mother's Day this year might not include going out for an overpriced brunch, you can still whip up a pitcher of mimosas at home and schedule a movie marathon courtesy of Netflix or Amazon Prime with your mama. This list comes from Good Housekeeping.

Oh, and if you can't physically be with your mom, you can set up a Netflix Watch Party and watch the same movie together, but separate.

News

Opening night for Broadway
Big news!

Mayor Bill de Blasio and the NYC Department of Cultural Affairs today announced the NYC Artist Corps, a $25 million investment in local artists to bring creative programming and engagement to every corner of the city this summer. The Artist Corps builds on the recently announced City Cleanup Corps (CCC), a New Deal-inspired economic recovery program to directly create 10,000 jobs and make New York City the cleanest, greenest city in the United States.

Projects could include performances, public artworks, pop-up shows through New York City's Summer Rising program, new murals and canvasses, and more.

"Art and artists make New York City the cultural capital of the world, and the artistic community has an essential role in building a recovery for all of us," said Mayor Bill de Blasio. "The City Artist Corps will tap into our greatest resource – New Yorkers' boundless creativity – to create jobs and make our city more beautiful and vibrant than ever." "Our artists have been one of the hardest hit communities during the pandemic. Making sure these essential workers have the support they need to succeed in New York City is inextricably linked to a recovery for all of us," said Deputy Mayor for Housing and Economic Development Vicki Been. "I am thrilled that the City Artist Corps will provide support to our performers, artists, and musicians as they continue to liven and brighten up our city. Their talent, passion, wisdom will lead us into the greatest comeback this city has ever seen."

Read the entire press release here.

Thanks for support from our season performance sponsor:

Please consider...

We know there are many organizations and individuals out there asking for financial support. The CCA would appreciate your consideration. If you can't help right now, we understand. But when the time comes — and it will come — even if you can't make an outright donation, we hope you'll buy tickets and support live performances at the CCA. Thank you!

DONATE

Dig up a CCA ticket stub from the past few years and you'll discover a coupon on the back for Novio's Bistro. They welcome you to take advantage of the 15% discount coupon while you enjoy delicious food and great company! Dine-in offer only, please.

Collins Center for the Arts
2 Flagstaff Road
University of Maine
Orono, ME 04469

UPDATE PREFERENCES OR UNSUBSCRIBE