Dear Matthew,

Here are this week's Six Picks – a curated list of virtual events and videos to keep you connected to the world of performing arts. Find more links like these on our website. Enjoy!

Nicholas, Anna & Sergei May 16, 8 p.m.

Hershey Felder stars as Sergei Rachmaninoff in Nicholas, Anna & Sergei — Live From Florence, a new film by Felder featuring the music of Sergei Rachmaninoff. Taking place as a memory play in the house in which the Russian Rachmaninoff died in Beverly Hills, this is the story of a very strange meeting between Rachmaninoff and Anna Anderson, the woman who claimed to be the sole surviving member of the Romanov Dynasty, the Princess Anastasia.

A Night of Covenant House Stars May 17, 8 p.m.

In this livestream benefit, an all-star lineup of artists and youth advocates from Broadway, TV, music, and film will join Covenant House to stand with young people facing homelessness as they embrace a new dawn of possibility and opportunity. Check out the stars who are taking part: Jon Bon Jovi, Meryl Streep, Jon Hamm, Lin-Manuel Miranda, Dolly Parton, Ryan Reynolds, Stephen Colbert, Vanessa Williams, Sara Bareilles, and many more! Here's a trailer to give you a sneak peek.

42nd Street Through May 18, 2021

Captured live from the London stage and directed by the original author of the show, Mark Bramble, 42nd Street is one of Broadway's most classic and beloved tales. Full of crowd-pleasing tap dances, popular musical theatre standards including "Lullaby of Broadway," "We're in the Money," "42nd Street" and more, plus show-stopping ensemble production numbers. Not to be missed!

Featuring Rachmaninoff's most beloved melodies and music. Presented by the San Diego Repertory Theatre.

American Mosaic
Wed., May 19, 7:30 p.m.

Ensemble Connect invites you to a fascinating fusion of visual art and chamber music. American Mosaic showcases the many identities, cultures, and styles that 20th- and 21st-century composers in America bring to their music. This program calls attention to the ever-expanding boundaries of what it means to be an artist and musician in the diverse cultural mosaic that is the United States while also celebrating one's own personal identity.

Voilà Viola
Through May 22

British Columbia's Kamloops Symphony shines a light on the sometimes forgotten yet always exquisitely beautiful member of the string section: the viola. Sought-after Canadian soloist, Marina Thibeault plays the ethereal and folkloric Viola Concerto by Latvian composer Peteris Vasks. Grieg's Holberg Suite, and the Concerto for Strings by Nino Rota, best known for his soundtrack to The Godfather, round out this adventurous concert experience.

Cry by Alvin Ailey
Watch anytime!

In celebration of the 50th anniversary of Alvin Ailey's Cry, Ailey All Access presents a newly filmed version featuring Jacqueline Green. Mr. Ailey choreographed Cry on his muse Judith Jamison and presented it to his mother for her birthday. He dedicated the piece to "all Black women everywhere--especially our mothers."

Broadway is reopening, but what can you see?

Here's a link that offers a list of Broadway shows, a little background on each show and when tickets will be available. Get info on Hamilton, The Lion King, Wicked, Chicago and more!

Please take our survey!

We're conducting a survey to gauge thoughts and perceptions surrounding the return of live events. We want to get back to presenting events on our stage, but we don't want to make a grand return until you feel ready. Thank you for your input!

Thanks for support from our season performance sponsor:

Please consider...

We know there are many organizations and individuals out there asking for financial support. The CCA would appreciate your consideration. If you can't help right now, we understand. But when the time comes — and it will come — even if you can't make an outright donation, we hope you'll buy tickets and support live performances at the CCA. Thank you!

DONATE

Dig up a CCA ticket stub from the past few years and you'll discover a coupon on the back for Novio's Bistro. They welcome you to take advantage of the 15% discount coupon while you enjoy delicious food and great company! Dine-in offer only, please.
