Dear Alexandra Attanasio,

Thank you for applying to the Residence Director position. Due to the COVID-19 Pandemic Emergency, University of the Pacific has suspended all new hiring activities until further notice. After such time, we will review our business conditions and the recommendations of local, state, and national health organizations regarding COVID-19 as they relate to hiring activities.

Your application will remain active in our system. After the hiring suspension is canceled, the University will contact those who are selected to continue in the hiring process.

We appreciate your understanding in these unusual times and the current situation caused by the COVID-19 pandemic.

Sincerely,

University of the Pacific, Office of Human Resources
