MINCHER: This is Bill Mincher with another in a series of brief interviews we have been doing at the new bakery of the John Jay Nissen Baking Corp. on Abbott Street in Brewer. This time we will be talking to Mr. J. A. Soucie from Fredericton, New Brunswick. Mr. Soucie, have you been through the entire plant?

MR. SOUCIE: Yes sir, I have.

MINCHER: What do you think of it?

MR. SOUCIE: Well in my opinion, I am from New Brunswick myself and I have worked in a bakery for the last 12 years, but I have never seen anything like this.

MINCHER: Just how do you mean that?

MR. SOUCIE: Well, now for instance there is an oven here that puts 5,000 rolls an hour; we have one in Fredericton. I sell that amount of bread in one week, and believe me, I am really quite impressed to look at.

MINCHER: If I said this was mass production of wholesome bread, you would believe me, right?

MR. SOUCIE: I certainly would.

MINCHER: Thank you very much, Mr. Soucie.
