6. Lois Prescott and Diane Deane spoke on behalf of the Abaris Club. They stated that their group would be interested in raising funds for an exterior sign for the C.H. Chairman Thompson indicated that the Building Committee had met and was leaning toward a slate and granite sign in keeping with the local theme, although the club could certainly propose any alternatives. Lois asked if any of the donated monies would be available in this effort, and upon receiving an affirmative reply, said she believed the club would move forward with this project. The Chair expressed the board’s appreciation.

7. Manager informed the board that the Elm Street tree vandal was found guilty in District Court, and went on to grouse that the judge had set restitution for damages at $400.00, rather than the

7. Manager provided progress report on developing costs and issues with credit-card payments for taxes and other possible sales. There is a provision that allows the percentage based costs to be passed directly to the customer rather than the vendor. Many towns report that customers often decide to pay by check when they learn this. It was suggested to wait for further legislation and more study at this time.

8. Manager reported that Central Maine Power Company has not energized the apparatus for our Christmas wreaths. Sherry French had been successful in obtaining over 40 sponsors of poles and Jeff Moore had completed the 28 free-labor installations as agreed. The former Desmond Variety property on Elm Street is to be sent out to bid for sale following the town attorney’s opinion of title and the Walter Mayo Jr. property on Water Street is to handled in the same manner. Both of these actions were agreed following motions by Dexter, seconded by Martell and unanimous votes. Pursuant to a Burdin
