Now the
A-bout

jump stead-y club they gave a ball, And it washeld down at goodhope hall. twelve o'clock ev'-ry-thing was fine. To tell the truth I was out of mind.

All the boot-leg-gers in the town Brought a lit-tle jump stead-y a-long, Now And just be-fore I lost my head I seen them tak-ing six men out dead. They peo-ple came from far and near, To taste the dif-fer-ent mixture that was handled there. When the walked out win-dows in the air, Some-bod-y hollered music, but no jazzband was there, Ev'-ry-jazzband struck up "You'd be surprised, Ev'-ry-bod-y in the hall was goo-gled eyed, bod-y there was pleasure bent You could get par-a-lized for_ fif-teen cents.
