AUDITOR'S REPORT

I have examined the accounts of the various town officers and find the same to have been accurately kept throughout the year. Vouchers are on file for all disbursements, and examination of the Treasurer's account shows that all orders drawn by the Selectmen have been paid, and that the amount of cash in treasury as shown by his report is correct.

Respectfully submitted,

GEO. C. BLANCE,
Auditor.
To the Members of the Superintending School Committee and Citizens of Winter Harbor:

I have the honor of presenting to you my second annual report of the condition, progress and needs of your school.

Schools opened this fall term with an enrollment as follows:- Primary grades, 25; intermediate grades 24; grades seven and eight, 19; high school, 71.

With the exception of one teacher we have the same teaching staff that we had last year. Miss Ivy Rice, a graduate of Castine Normal School, and a teacher of experience has been elected to teach grades four, five and six. Miss Rice came to us well recommended and is living up to our expectations. We are fortunate in having teachers who are willing to do their best. When we get teachers who are filling their positions well, then we should aim to retain them because by so doing we are benefiting our schools and our town. A poor teacher should not be retained if we would maintain a high standard for our schools.

I feel that I can truly say that we have made progress this year. Teachers have earnestly and faithfully performed their duties using the best methods in their work and insisting that the pupils should do their work well every day. I have found the pupils eager to learn and willing to be taught.

We have held several teachers' meetings during the year. At these meetings we have discussed the best methods of teaching and the best ways and means of trying to improve the backward pupils. While we must not forget the teaching of all subjects, I feel that teachers should especially emphasize reading, because it is the foundation for learning well all the other grade subjects. If a pupil is to do well in arithmetic, geography, English, etc., he must first learn to read intelligently. This is the reason that reading is considered the most important subject and the corner stone of the educational structure.

Have you realized how important is the health of your child? Do you know that if you would have him do the best kind of school work he must have the best kind of health? See to it that your child is sound in body and mind by having him carry out the best rules for health. Then you will have a child who will do his school work in a natural way and one who will bring happiness into your home. Please cooperate with our school nurse, Mrs. Holt, who is doing such splendid work for our boys and girls. If Mrs. Holt tells you that your child needs to have his eyes examined or that he needs to have a physical examination for this or that thing, please feel assured that she has made a thorough investigation of your child's needs and do everything you can to cooperate with her for the best good of your child.

New language books have been purchased for grades three and four and new American histories for grade six and for the high school. We have bought new spellers for grades three to six inclusive. From the special library fund we have been able to buy seventy-five books and before the end of the school year we expect to have at least one hundred books. This attainment, we consider very good for the first year. In our elementary and high schools we are in great need of more reference books. Each year we expect to purchase more of these books so that in a few years we shall be proud of our reference libraries.

The junior and senior high schools are keeping up the high standard that has been maintained for the past four or five years. The students are encouraged to do their best and to see to it that their high school studies come first. While extra curricula or social activities are essential for every growing high school boy and girl, nevertheless, these activities are for the purpose of keeping the students physically and mentally fit to do their regular school work. In order for a student to do his best in school, he must have a balanced ration of his regular school studies and his extra curricula activities. A high school student cannot spend the greater portion of his time in basketball or obtaining merit badges in the Boy Scouts, even though it is a worthy object to have in mind and expect to attain even a passing rank in his regular school work. These things must be rightly balanced and then the student, parent and teacher will all rejoice because the student is making progress along all lines in the right way.

The money appropriated for repairs I feel has been carefully and wisely expended. By making two class rooms downstairs in the high school building, it has made it possible to have three good rooms for teaching instead of two as we had last year. The small room, which formerly had been used as a class room, would have been too small this year for the large number of students in some classes. For the best good of students and teachers, both from a health point of view and from a standpoint of having a suitable class room, the change, that has been made, is for the best good of all.

In conclusion, I wish to thank the members of the school committee, the teachers and citizens for the splendid support they have given during the entire school year.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM M. BOTTOMLEY,
Superintendent of Schools.

To the citizens of Winter Harbor I hereby submit my annual report of the nursing activities of the service for the year of 1932:

The Flander's Bay Service is affiliated with the Maine Public Health Association of Augusta and is under its direct supervision.

The personnel remains the same as in the past years: Fletcher Wood, Gouldsboro, chairman, Rubie Tracy, Winter Harbor, secretary, Charles Small, treasurer and Mrs. Theresa Anderson R. N., Director of Nursing service. The service is supported mainly by interested summer residents, fees, Christmas Health Seals, and the balance of the budget is met by town appropriations.

CHILD HEALTH, WELFARE AND PRENATAL WORK

This is one of the most important programs of Public Health Service. It has been a satisfactory and cooperative service this past year. 46 clinics were held throughout the territory with an attendance of 210 babies and 190 preschool children (with the mothers, prenatal cases, and other interested adults, the attendance was brought up to 507) as a result these conferences 17 preschool children had defects corrected and were ready to enter school without the handicap these defects might give them. It is interesting to note that the first and second years of the Flander's Bay Service the combined number attending clinics totalled 100. This comparison shows how the service has grown.

SCHOOL HEALTH SERVICE

If the country is ever to realize her health resources she must conserve the health of her public school children, as health is the greatest wealth and the most solid foundation for true happiness and good citizenship. The physical as well as the mental health of the school children is as much ours during a period of depression as it is during a period of prosperity.

60 visits were made to the 17 school rooms. 652 inspections were given 326 children. 454 Audiometer hearing tests were made. 181 VonPirQuet skin tests were made, 25 reacted to this test, showing a tendency to the dreaded T. B. disease. The reactors were xrayed, the films sent to a specialist in Bangor, who advised that eight needed a chest examination. The T. B. skin tests and x-rays were given by the Maine Public Health Association clinic service who also arranged the chest clinic in charge of Dr. Lester Adams of Hebron Sanatorium. Although nothing serious was found at this clinic it was advised that follow up work and annual examinations be made. The sale of Christmas Seals pay for this particular program.

Of the 652 inspections to the school children, 200 were found with defects that can be corrected, teeth as usual taking the lead. 96 corrections were made during the year. 43 attended the dental clinic held in the nurses' office in Augusta, 15 were taken to the hospital for throat operations.

Child Health Week or May Day was observed throughout the territory. The 2nd annual Flander's Bay Health Field Day was held with an attendance of 487. This included the children from the 4th and to and including the 8th grades, teachers, superintendent of schools, judges and those who transported the children and some of the parents and members of the school board. The usual athletic events were held, the silver cup donated by the Maine Sea Coast Mission again a trophy a second time.

As the May Day program is for the benefit of all children, those from the 1st to the 4th grades were entertained and took part in games, etc. in the Grange hall while a special conference was held later for the babies and preschool children.

GENERAL SERVICE

543 nursing visits, 732 follow up and instructive visits and 100 social service visits were made to 468 cases.

Many details of a general nature have been looked after through this service. 15 patients were personally taken to the physician. 20 have been taken to the dentist and 20 to the hospital.

Visits have been made to give care to surgical and medical cases. Instructive visits have been made to prenatal, infant, preschool, post partum and T. B. patients.

Visits of investigation and miscellaneous visits have been made for the prevention of communicable diseases, which is a problem in a rural community. In the social service work with the cooperation of the Maine Sea Coast Mission several families have been provided with bed coverings and layettes.

SPECIAL ACTIVITIES THE PAST YEAR

Child Health or May Day Programs

Dental clinic

46 Baby and Preschool Child Clinics

Chest clinic

Woodman 4-A Audiometer for hearing tests

VonPirQuet T. B. skin test
Much support has been given in the development of the program by the nurse director who made five supervisory visits to the territory the past year, also help was derived in meeting problems by attendance at several staff meetings.

In closing I wish to extend my thanks to the teachers, superintendent of schools, parents and all others who by their splendid cooperation have helped to make this program a success. I appeal to this continued interest and support as it is the everlasting team work of every soul that in the future as in the past will bring results.
