ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

SELECTMEN, TREASURER

AND

SUPERVISOR OF SCHOOLS,

FOR THE YEAR ENDING FEB. 18, 1888.

FRYEBURG, ME.
RECORD JOB PRINT.
1888.
REPORT OF SELECTMEN.

To the Inhabitants of Fryeburg:

It may be expected by you that the Board of Selectmen, in making an annual report to the town of the expenditure of your money, having the management of most of the business transactions in the various departments, could clearly and exactly state the financial standing of the town. Yet with considerable experience we cannot, nor can the Treasurer make up an account that will show it precisely. And for this reason, because the assessments of a year have never been nor can be all collected; and further, because at the time of preparing a report there are some bills that have not been presented, some perhaps forgotten. These, with the abatements yearly made to collectors, will change the Treasurer's account, since every abatement order, whatever sum it represents, is that much less cash in the treasury. But town reports show it very nearly as it is. It is not an easy matter to manage everything as it should be, or prevent perhaps a little extravagance here and there. Every individual having a bill against the town should present it the first week in February of each year, and get an order for settlement. Then in making a report there would not be any outstanding bills. We advise this to be practiced in future years.

POOR FARM.

The same six inmates of the poor-house have been supported this year as last. The accustomed way of computing the weekly cost has been to add the cost of supplies for the house and farm, extra help, medical attendance, and master’s salary, and to deduct from this sum what has been received for stock sold, etc. The cost per week this year is very nearly $2.00. The expense for supplies, extra help, etc., is $414.25; master’s salary, $300.00; total, $714.25. Nothing has been bought for the house or farm that was not needed, and at reasonable prices; yet the summing up is more than the appropriation. Neat stock from the farm has been sold to the amount of $229, and $145 worth bought, giving $84 credit to the town.

EXPENSE OF POOR AWAY FROM FARM.

Our pauper expenses away from the town farm have been greater than for many years. The widow of the late Andrew Osgood, formerly of Fryeburg, with five children, the oldest nine and the youngest less than one year of age, came from Massachusetts to Brownfield, in rather destitute condition. Not long after Mrs. Osgood was taken sick, and must be cared for and subsistence furnished for the family. Brownfield furnished them, and the bill of items shows no unreasonable charges; the expense (including medical attendance) in Brownfield was $15 51. Subsequently her friends removed the family to Parsonsfield, on contract of $5.00 per week; the last bills of E. Billings were $20.00, and a clothing bill by town of Parsonsfield was $10.94; total amount, $220.45. This family have moved out of the State and are now no expense to Fryeburg. One Susan Johnson, daughter of Wm. Johnson, fell into distress in Portland and was sent to the hospital. Portland's bill was $32.43. These two unexpected cases, with what is shown in orders for aid to poor in Fryeburg, make our pauper expenses heavy. There is, or will be Mar. 15, due Marshall Walker, for boarding and clothing the Smith boy, $45, which should be reckoned outstanding.

Hutchins received an order for $130; by agreement of parties $50 was to be drawn to Hastings. There was due the town from Hastings on collections $29.78. The above order closes the matter.

OUTSTANDING HIGHWAY BILLS, 1885.

We thought, and said in our last report, that most of the bills for work on highways had been settled, but several such, certified by the surveyors of that year, have been presented. We have drawn orders to pay them.

A. P. Charles, $5.00

SNOW BILLS.

All we have to say is that the cost of breaking out roads for the winter of 1886—7 was heavy and exceeded the balance left from the appropriation of 1886 by $654.85. For our winter work no men can tell what sum of money to raise to meet the expense, as there will be much more needed some years than others.

REPAIR OF HIGHWAYS.

There were $1,200.00 raised for this purpose, which means summer and winter work for the year 1887. We were aware after the winter of 1886 was over that the balance of the appropriation of that year for winter work must be insufficient to meet the expense of winter bills. We therefore concluded to put the roads in a comfortable condition at the least possible cost, to help out in the extraordinary expense of last winter. We do not pretend to say that perhaps more work on our roads in some places was not needed, but we do say that the roads were better last year, throughout, than the average of the last twenty years.

In the buying and selling of our road team there was a little loss. Cost of the four oxen, $308.00; sold for $290.00; received of the West Oxford Agricultural Society for premium and work, $11.75; leaving $6.25 less than cost. Orders drawn amount to $584.30, which includes $13.00 outstanding bills of 1886. Adding loss on team to amount of orders, and deducting outstanding bills, the cost of road repairs for summer and fall of 1887 is $577.55. The outstanding bills of 1887, if any, will not exceed $10.00.

In the purchase of the road team there was an order to Albert Kimball for $155.00, and to John Weston for $34.00, with some farm stock, which made up $153.00, the price of a second pair of oxen. These orders affect nothing, as they are cancelled in selling the team.

T. C. Shirley, for lumber to repair Ballard brook bridge, estimated, $15 00
Chandler Heath, for labor, estimated, 6 00

Total, $744 80

In summing up the business of the year, and giving to the taxpayers a statement of how the expenses stand with the assessment and how the result affects the indebtedness of the town, we here give this account:

By Assessment of 1887, $7,435 98

To General Orders, $1,180 65
Snow Bills, 950 55
Repair of Roads, summer of '87, 584 30
Outstanding Highway, '85, 33 00
Poor-Farm expenses, 914 25
Expense of Poor away from farm, 389 81
School-Books, 100 18

Town Orders amount to $4,152 74
Now add for Schools, 1,400 00

$5,652 74

In conclusion, we have shown everything possible; we do not believe there are $10.00 outstanding claims against the town. We have used our best economy in directing every business transaction, yet when you strike the balance the appropriations are insufficient.

Respectfully submitted,

C. H. WALKER. Selectmen

DISTRICT NO. 1. Norman Charles, Agent.

Summer term taught by Edward N. Shirley. Length of term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 46; average attendance, 41; wages of teacher, $22 per month. School closed without notice.

Fall term taught by Miss Mary F. Towle. Length of term, 10 weeks; whole number of pupils in attendance, 45; average attendance, 41; wages of teacher, $6.00 per week. Miss Towle has taught many terms of school in town, and always with credit to herself and satisfaction to all those interested. This term was no exception, as the amount of work, and the thoroughness, well testified. She is entitled to much praise for her labors in this school, and the results show that she takes position in the very front rank as a teacher.

Winter term taught by Edwin E. Russell. Length of term, 11 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 44; average attendance, 38; wages of teacher, $35 per month. Closed without notice. Appeared well on my first visit, and from my knowledge of Mr. Russell’s qualifications as a teacher, I can safely say that I have no doubt it was a very profitable term.

Summer, fall and winter terms taught by Miss Eva D. Walker. Length of summer term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 22; average number, 17. Length of fall term, 8 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 19; average number, 15; wages of teacher, $6.50. Winter term the same. Miss Walker has proved herself one of our best teachers. Good progress is made in all studies, and interest maintained by the introduction of original methods that are valuable of themselves.

Summer and fall terms taught by Miss Lulu C. Whitehouse. Length of summer term, 11 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 8; average attendance, 8; wages of teacher, $3.00 per week. Length of fall term, 12 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 6; average attendance, 5; wages of teacher, $3.00. The progress made during these terms of school, shows Miss Whitehouse to be well fitted for her work. Noted good progress in reading, fine in writing, order very good.

Spring term taught by Miss Cynthia I. Warren. Length of term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 1; wages of teacher, $2.50. Miss Warren has taught before in this district, and always with good results.

Summer term taught by Miss Lettie M. Snow. Length of term, 8 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 9; average number, 7; wages of teacher, $3.00. Order fair; good progress in all branches, especially arithmetic.

Fall term taught by Mrs. Carrie M. Warren. Length of term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 11; average number, 9; wages of teacher, $3.50. Mrs. Warren is an experienced teacher, a fine scholar, and never fails to do good work in the school-room. Noted good progress in all branches. Order good.

Winter term taught by Miss Josie Keith. Length of term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 13; average attendance, 10; wages of teacher, $4.00. Order good. Lack of analysis. But little written work performed on the board, and but little explanation by the teacher. Progress fair.

Summer term taught by Mrs. Sadie C. Osgood. Length of term, 13 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 3; wages of teacher, $3.00. Considering the size of the school, the scholars made good progress. Order good.

Fall term begun by Mrs. Osgood, finished by Katie E. Abbott. Length of term, 11 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 3; average number, 2; wages of teacher, $3.00. The interest of the scholars in the school was fully maintained, and Miss Abbott seems well prepared to manage and instruct a school.

Summer term taught by Miss Sadie M. Towle. Length of term, 11 weeks; number in attendance, 29; average number, 26; wages of teacher, £4.50. There was a term of private school in this district in the spring, taught by Miss Mary F. Towle. Then the summer term coming with only a short vacation, found the scholars in good condition for beginning a term’s work. Miss Towle put her whole energies into this term, and it was made very profitable. The work was done thoroughly and well. I believe this was one of Miss Towle’s most successful terms of school.

Fall term taught by Miss Nellie E. Frost. Length of term, 12 weeks; number in attendance, 30; average number, 30; wages of teacher, $5.00 per week. This was also a very successful term. Fine order was maintained, the thoroughness of the preceding terms continued, and marked improvement made in all branches, particularly reading and grammar. Winter term in session. Same teacher.

DISTRICT NO. 9. J. Alvin Jones, Agent.

Summer and fall terms taught by Miss May Abbott. Length of summer term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 13; average attendance, 12; wages of teacher, $3.50 per week. Length of fall term, 10 weeks; whole number in attendance, 15; average number, 13; wages of teacher, $3.50 per week. These terms of school were very successful. Miss Abbott has a very good faculty to interest and instruct small scholars. They were all highly interested and made good progress in all their studies, some of the smaller reading classes in particular.

DISTRICT NO. 10. Woodman Charles, Agent.

Summer term taught by Miss Mary F. Towle. Length of term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 37; average number, 31; wages of teacher, $5.50. This was Miss Towle’s second term in this district, and was a perfect success in every particular. The improvement was good in all branches, and in general appearance the school ranks first among all others during the school year.

Fall term taught by Miss Sadie M. Towle. Length of term, 12 weeks; number in attendance, 38; average number, 33; wages of teacher, $5.00. Miss Towle’s former reputation was fully sustained in this school.

Winter term taught by Mr. Albert Spencer. Was called into this school to investigate certain troubles that had arisen. After thoroughly investigating the case, and giving all parties a hearing, I fully sustained the teacher, and expelled one pupil. Since then the school is prospering finely. In session.

Summer and fall terms taught by Miss Nellie G. Smart. Length of summer term, 4 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 15; average number, 13; wages of teacher, $4.00. Length of fall term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 14; average number, 11; wages of teacher, $4.00. Summer school was stopped on account of sickness in the district. Miss Smart has had much experience as a teacher, and always does good work. These schools were no exception. Order good. The interest was kept up, and good progress made in all branches.

Winter term, Fred McKeen, teacher. Appeared well at first visit. Now in session.

Summer and fall terms taught by Miss Alice E. Holt. Length of summer term, 8 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 3; average number, 3; wages of teacher, $2.75. Length of fall term, —; number of pupils in attendance, 3; average number, 3; wages of teacher, $2.75. Miss Holt did very good work in this school. Although it was her first attempt at teaching, she showed that only experience is necessary to make her a fine teacher.

Summer and winter terms taught by Mrs. H. H. Howe. Length of summer term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 11; average number, 10; wages of teacher, $4.00. Register of winter term not yet received. Fair progress was made in all studies. Noted improvement in arithmetic and reading.

Summer and fall terms taught by Mrs. Annie Marston Sanborn. Length of summer term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 17; average number, 16; wages of teacher, $4.00. Length of fall term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 19; average attendance, 18; wages of teacher, $4.00. This is Mrs. Sanborn's second year in this district, and the results are fully as good as last year. Scholars were kept interested during both terms, and made good progress in all branches.

DISTRICT NO. 15.  Austin Bemis, Agent.

Summer term taught by Miss Alice Bemis. Length of term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 22; average number, 18; wages of teacher, $4.00. This was Miss Bemis' first work in the school-room, and it being in her own district, and she the agent's daughter, she labored under some difficulties that were hard to overcome. Although she tried hard for the school, it was not so profitable as it would have been under different circumstances. Miss Bemis is a good scholar, and with experience will make a good teacher.

Winter term taught by Miss Nellie G. Smart. In session.

DISTRICT NO. 16. Moses Smart, Agent.

Summer term taught by Miss Jennie Farrington. Length of term 8 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 8; average number, 7; wages of teacher, $2.50. Miss Farrington did good work in this school. Scholars interested. Good progress in all studies.

Fall term taught by Miss Fannie L. Hubbard. Length of term, 9 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 8; average number, 7; wages of teacher, $3.00. This also was a profitable term. Noted good progress in all branches, particularly arithmetic and reading.

DISTRICT NO. 17. Fred M. Keniston, Agent.

Summer and winter terms taught by Miss Annie E. Gordon. Length of summer term, 10 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 9; average number, 8; wages of teacher, $3.00. Length of winter term, 11 weeks; number of pupils in attendance, 13; average attendance, 9; wages of teacher, $4.00. Miss Gordon is a fine scholar, and did good work in this district. The summer term was broken by sickness, but still fair progress was made. The winter term, not being broken, was more profitable. Good progress in all branches.

REMARKS.

While some of our schools have not been just what we could wish, in the main they have been profitable. In nearly all our larger schools we have had teachers of reputation and experience; while nearly all our young teachers have entered into their work with enthusiasm, and consequently have done good work. However, I think it a mistake to employ any but teachers of experience in our larger and most advanced schools. The young teachers may be equally well fitted, may pass just as good an examination, but still they lack in some things that experience alone will give. In some districts and among small scholars, they are often very profitable teachers, because they, having a small amount of money, wish to expend it judiciously and cannot afford to pay the prices that experienced teachers will command; so while the young teacher will answer every purpose, they prolong their schools, getting better results on the whole than they would to put their money into fewer weeks school. Thus the benefits are mutual. The three term system has been maintained in most districts, and is a decided improvement and one to be encouraged. The District System as now in use in this town is something of a relic, and I wish we might do away with it, and put in its place some system more modern, and that would lead to better results. By the State Superintendent’s Report, I see that there are 100 towns that have voted to do away with the district system, an increase of 15 over last year, and that some towns contemplate a change at their coming March meeting.

Warren Colburn’s Arithmetics have been put into our schools for their mental work. They give good satisfaction. I am sure there has been a marked improvement in analysis during the year, much of it due to the “Colburns.” I have also changed the Arithmetics for the “Fish” Arithmetics, in two numbers, by the same publishers. This exchange was even, old books for new, the publishers to pay express on all introductory orders and on all old books returned; also, agreeing to furnish desk copies free, and, after introduction is complete, to furnish the large book for 50 cents and the small one for 25 cents, net. These Arithmetics are giving good satisfaction. I have also adopted Monroe’s New Series of Readers in place of the old. I found that we were short of Readers, and there being a few of the new series in use and the old difficult to obtain, I deemed it best to adopt the new, which I did on the following terms: Primer, 9 cents; First Reader, 12 cents; Second Reader, 18 cents; Third Reader, 35 cents; Fourth Reader, 55 cents, and Fifth Reader, 70 cents. Old books in exchange. Express paid by publishers on all old books returned and on all introductory orders of new books. After introduction is complete they will be furnished at the following net contract prices: Primer, 12 cents; First Reader, 17 cents; Second Reader, 25 cents; Third Reader, 35 cents; Fourth Reader, 55 cents; Fifth Reader, 70 cents. There is one less book in the series, which is an advantage; they are well bound, finally illustrated from new cuts, and second to none in the quality of the reading matter they contain. Thus the town is again supplied with new Arithmetics and Readers at very small cost. I think some other Grammar would give better results. I very much prefer a one book series, but thought best not to change them this year.

There has been no change made in our school-houses the past year. No. 1 has added Reading Charts, and No. 10 a collection of Outline Maps. There has been no very serious disturbance in any school. Many of the terms have been quite badly broken up by mumps and whooping cough, which of course prevented the best work from being done in them. On the whole, the work for the school year just past will compare favorably with the one before it. In many cases the improvement has been most marked. I would recommend that agents procure more and better furniture for the school-houses. Some have no pail or broom; many no erasers or chalk, unless furnished by the teachers; and none a thermometer. I wish to again urge upon all the necessity of this inexpensive article. The proper temperature of the school-room has much to do with the health and comfort of the inmates, and their improvement as well.

Respectfully submitted,

B. WALKER McKEEN, Supervisor.
