Remarks.

There are three suits pending, assigned for April term: Poland v. Martha Maxwell was brought to get judgment against her estate for supplies furnished in the past eight years by the town. We held a tax deed which counsel decided was void; as the amount involved was $706.47, we considered it worth looking after, hence the suit. We also brought suit against the town of Madison for supplies furnished W. C. and Samuel Young; and against District No. 1, Minot, for money paid for tuition of scholars.

We were fortunate in again procuring Mr. Walton and wife as Overseer and Matron of the Farm. All of the business of the Farm has been managed by them to our entire satisfaction.

Respectfully submitted,

Total cost of Winter Schools, $1,870 25
SCHOOL NO. 1.—RANGE HILL.

Summer term taught by Amy E. Waterhouse. There was not that lively interest in this school that is necessary to insure the best results.

Winter term, taught by Walter Gammon, was a success in every respect. Although without previous experience, Mr. Gammon seems to possess the much-needed tact of interesting and holding the attention of his pupils. With experience he will rank with the first.

SCHOOL NO. 2.—BLACKCAT.

Mary W. Gowell in summer, and Elmer E. Archibald in winter, met with success such as has always attended their efforts in this school. Both seem to have a faculty for interesting their pupils that few teachers possess.

SCHOOL NO. 3.—WEST POLAND.

Miss Margie I. Whitney, of Bridgton, was placed in charge of this school for the year, and met with unqualified success. The faithful and efficient work of the teacher was rewarded by the increased interest of both pupils and parents and the rapid and thorough advancement of the school.

The High School, now in session, under Miss Whitney's instruction, we regard as highly profitable, proving very conclusively the wisdom and advantage of retaining a successful teacher for several successive terms.

SCHOOL NO. 4.—WHITE OAK HILL.

Summer term was taught by Emma A. Hayes, who labored earnestly for the advancement of her pupils. Her labors were highly appreciated.

Winter term taught by F. E. Thurlow.
SCHOOL NO. 6.—EMPIRE.

Summer term begun by Mrs. Ella McCann with every indication of a successful term. Owing to sickness the school closed at the end of the second week.

Fall term was taught by Miss Annie B. Crooker, a teacher of experience and ability. Her former reputation as a first-class teacher was fully sustained.

Winter term was conducted by W. W. McCann, who had a previous experience of forty terms. The result of his labors was all that could be desired.

NO. 8.—MINOT CORNER DISTRICT.

The teachers employed here for the year were:

Summer term—Mr. Almon Jordan, High School; and Mrs. Florence G. Lunt, Primary.

Fall and Winter Terms—High School, Mr. R. J. Everett; Primary, Mrs. Florence G. Lunt.

Length of Terms—Summer, 9 weeks. Fall term, High School, 10 weeks; Primary, 8 weeks. Winter terms, High School, 10 weeks; Primary, 10 weeks.

Mr. Jordan entered upon his duties with the full confidence of the Committee, he being well-known to all the members of the Board as a young man of earnest endeavor, and well qualified for the work he had chosen. But for some reason he failed to receive that hearty co-operation of pupils and parents so essential to success in the school-room, and the school was not so profitable as it should have been.

Mrs. Lunt has taught so long and so successfully in this school—that praise from us would be but idle words. Suffice it for us to say that we hope she may long be retained in the work that she so faithfully performs.

The winter term was Mr. Everett's fifth term with the scholars in this school.

DISTRICT NO. 9.—BAILEY HILL.

In this district there have been held three terms of school, a Summer term of nine weeks; Fall term of eight weeks, and a Winter term of ten weeks.

The teachers were: Summer term, Miss Fannie Kimball. Fall term, Miss Mary E. Jordan; and Winter term, Mr. Edwin R. Cobb. In our selection of teachers for this school we were fortunate. Miss Kimball succeeded in at once gaining the hearty good will of her pupils; then with tact and conscientious work, a profitable term was but a logical result.

At the beginning of the Fall term Miss Jordan found the school in good condition and with her love for the work and rare ability as a teacher she succeeded in making this an exceptionally profitable term.

Mr. Cobb is well known as a teacher of large experience and it is hardly necessary for us to say that scholars made rapid advancement under his instruction.

DISTRICT NO. 10.—HARRIS HILL.

Summer term taught by Miss Mary L. Kimball. Winter term by Mr. Fred H. Cobb.

Length of Summer term, 9 weeks; Winter term, 14 weeks.

Although this school is small, like many others, yet good work was done during both terms. Miss Kimball is well qualified both by disposition and education to excel in the school-room, and at the closing examination the pupils showed that her efforts in their behalf had been well appreciated. During the winter term Mr. Cobb was very zealous in his efforts to succeed. "Nothing succeeds like success," and we are able to report a prosperous term and to recommend him as one of our progressive teachers.

SCHOOL NO. 11.—PIGEON HILL.

Miss Lenora Dunn conducted this school for the year. This was Miss Dunn's first experience, but she worked hard for the advancement of her pupils and we pronounce her school a success.

SCHOOL NO. 13.—BRAY DISTRICT.

Summer term was instructed by Miss Gertrude Davis, of New-Gloucester. Her pupils made good advancement.

A Fall term of four weeks was taught by Miss Grace Smith.

Owing to the condition of the house and the small number of pupils, the school was closed and the scholars have since attended school in No. 20.
SCHOOL NO. 14—LOWER OAK HILL.

Summer term, taught by Edna Storer, was a perfect success. Winter term, Miss Mary L. Kimball, teacher. Miss K. bids fair to become one of our first-class teachers. Her pupils were thoroughly instructed.

SCHOOL NO. 15—HERRICK VALLEY.

Summer term was taught by Miss Fannie A. Dunn, who worked hard for the advancement of the school. The closing examination showed that an average amount of work had been accomplished.

Fall term, N. D. Haskell, teacher. Mr. H. is a teacher of large experience and good qualifications. The pupils made good advancement.

Winter term, taught by C. E. Haskell, was highly successful. The school was well disciplined, and the closing examination gave evidence that a large amount of work had been accomplished. Mr. Haskell takes high rank as an instructor.

SCHOOL NO. 16—JOHNSON HILL.

Summer term, Edna V. Foster, of Gray, teacher. This was Miss Foster's first experience, yet we found the school orderly and well arranged, the pupils diligent and attentive. The attendance was regular, the advancement thorough.

Miss Anna M. Procter, of Raymond, taught the Winter term, and met with the best of success. Miss Procter is a superior scholar and an excellent disciplinarian. She has few equals as a thorough teacher.

SCHOOL NO. 18—HARDSCRABBLE.

Summer term, Miss Lillie R. Pendexter, of New Gloucester, teacher. The interest in this school was not all that is desired for a first-class school. The scholars made fair progress.

Winter term, 15 weeks. This term, by special request of the people in this district, was taught by Mrs. H. C. Frank. Mrs. F. had taught several terms in this school with good success, and the faithful and painstaking work during this term we think fully justified the wisdom of the people in their claim.
SCHOOL NO. 20—NORTH POLAND SCHOOL.

This school is located at Mechanic Falls. This being the first year that this school has been in the hands of the town, it may be well to state here that a new house has been erected and the old house repaired, the expense of which is shown elsewhere, and we have a pleasant, commodious and comfortable structure, convenient for three departments.

Owing to building and repairing, the summer term was held with District No. 1, of Minot.

Fall term, High School, was taught by Herbert J. Piper, of Phillips. Owing to the sickness of the teacher the school closed unexpectedly and the usual closing visit was not made. The sixth week the school appeared to be prospering finely.

Grammar department, Mrs. Anna Sedgley, of Gorham, teacher. She is a teacher of large experience, and possesses excellent qualifications. Her pupils are well disciplined, and the orderly and thorough manner that they perform their work is sufficient evidence that the right teacher is in the right place. We are ever proud to welcome the visitor.

Primary department, Miss Isabella A. Gray, teacher. Miss G. has been in this department for several terms, and we need only to say that her methods of teaching the young minds how to think for themselves are so perfect, that her services are almost indispensible. Long may she reign.

Winter term, High school, Mr. Ernest O. Cobb, of Minot, teacher. He is a teacher who possesses both energy and ability, and his labors in this school are crowned with the best of success.

The school is now in session, as is also the Grammar and Primary departments, with the same instructors as the Fall terms, with the same good results. We believe the teachers of this school should be retained.

SCHOOL NO. 21—TRIPP CITY.

Summer term, Miss Nellie Pulsifer, teacher. This was her first experience, and her success was a credit to her labors.

Winter term, Curtis L. Sophir, teacher. He is a teacher without experience, and his success here indicates that he will make a teacher of the first rank.
SCHOOL NO. 22—POLAND CORNER.

Summer term, Miss Meda E. Thayer, of Minot, teacher. She is a teacher who takes deep interest in her work, and her school was a perfect success.

Fall and Winter terms were taught by Mr. Anson Cobb, of Minot. Mr. C. is an excellent teacher. His labors were highly appreciated, and the scholars made rapid and thorough progress.

SCHOOL NO. 25—RIDGE DISTRICT.

Summer term was taught by Miss Ella L. Dunn. The school seemed to be doing well at our first visit, but so few scholars were present at the close that we were hardly able to judge of the advancement made.

The winter term was instructed by Miss Mary E. Jordan, who met with the same good success that has crowned her efforts in former terms. The advancement was rapid and the order perfect. Miss Jordan is a teacher whom few can equal, none excel.

SCHOOL NO. 27—PAGE'S MILLS.

There was but one term in this district, Miss Mary W. Gowell, teacher. Her school was a perfect success.

REMARKS.

Our schools for the past year have been in a great measure successful, perhaps not all that we could desire, but in nearly every instance the teachers employed have been competent and faithful to their duty.

It is difficult at present to avail ourselves of all the advantages afforded by graded schools, but under our present system with liberal appropriations and a careful and judicious selection of teachers, we see no reason why our pupils may not receive at home, a good, practical English education.

From the amount unexpended, the expense of the High School now in session at West Poland is to be deducted, but as will be seen from the statistics, about four hundred dollars will still remain in the treasury.
As our expenses for building and repairing school-houses during the past year have been necessarily large, extra care has been taken not to exceed the amount appropriated for school purposes.—Hence, Fall terms were not held in every district, but in such as to accommodate nearly all our pupils. This accounts for the amount unexpended, but it is safe to say that the appropriation would have given three terms in every district.

Trusting that our fellow citizens will pardon us for leaving a balance in the treasury, the above report is

Respectfully submitted,

FRANK E. THURLOW, S. S. Committee
FRANK E. HANSCOM, of Poland.
R. J. EVERETT.
