While we are rais-ing a might-y ag-gre-a - tion, — Of sol - diers brave and true, —
Tho shells are fly-ing and earth seems rent a sun - der, — The red cross nurse so brave —

— While we are prais-ing the he-ros of our na - tion — Who go to dare and do, —
— A - mong the dy - ing, while can-non still may thun - der, — Will go some life to save, —

Let's all re-mem-ber that band of mer - cy's an - gels, — And help in ev' - ry way —
And ere the bat-tles have all been fought and end - ed — Or can - nons thun - der cease —

— Lets one and all give heed to the call That the red cross sends to day. —
— She lifts her eyes in pray'r to the skies 'Tis a pray'r for last - ing peace. —

CHORUS

p-f

It's the cross that stands for mer - cy, — It's the cross that stands for love, — It's the cross that stands for help - ing hands Like those of an - gels from a - bove, — It's the sym - bol of the dawn of peace, When wars dark night is through, — The em - blem of hu - man - i - ty, The red cross calls to you, — It's the you, —
