'Love I Love, I Love my Wife,
But Oh! You Kid! (Von Tilzer)
Baritone solo by Arthur Collins.
Orchestra accompaniment.

The most sensational hit in years and the greatest success of Harry Von Tilzer's career as a popular song composer. The song has taken like wildfire and is already known the country over, though only very recently published. To hear it is to best appreciate its contagious humor and catchy air. Our record of it is a masterpiece, as sung by Mr. Collins, whose abilities in a song of this character need no comment.

I Wonder Who's Kissing Her Now. From "The Prince of To-Night." (Howard) Tenor Solo by Harry Burr. Orchestra accompaniment.

A delightful tenor number from a new musical comedy now playing in the West with immense success. In sentiment it is the reminiscent soliloquy of a man who is speculating on the fate of some of his former flames, the memories of whom still cling to him. The melody has a tender and dreamy charm that will make friends for the song everywhere. This record has some of the best singing that ever went into a recording machine. Mr. Burr in this easily eclipses any of his former successes.

My Pony Boy. (O'Donnell.) Sung
by Columbia Male Quartette. Orchestra accompaniment.

A new song of the west with the spirit of the prairies in its breezy and tuneful air. The lyric tells of a little pony-boy who is happy in the admiration of his western girl friends until he meets a "fluffy-ruffles" girl from New York. The verse is sung by the baritone, the quartette joining in the refrain with charming effect.

Good-Night, Moon-Light March-song. (Morse.) Sung by Columbia Male Quartette. Orchestra accompaniment.

A richly melodious quartette rendering of an exceptionally beautiful serenade in the form of a marching song. The melody is harmonized throughout the entire selection and the voices blend with remarkable effect. Vocally this record is superb.
