That's Why I Stole a Kiss From You.

Words by C. P. Mc DONALD

Music by W. C. PARKER

Andante con espress.

Just be-cause your deep blue eyes were filled with love-light ten - - der,
Just be-cause the mu-sic of your voice to me was cling - - ing,

That is why the birds were sweet-ly sing-ing o-ver-head;
That is why I gen-tly press'd your hand with-in my own;

Just be-cause your beam-ing smile pro-claim'd a sweet sur-ren-der,
Just be-cause my lov-ing heart with hap-pi-ness is ring-ing,

That is why I gave to you a blush-ing rose of red.
 Dear, I felt as proud as a - ny king up - on a throne.

Just be - cause the flow-ers there were lad-en with the dew, I Just be - cause your love was mine life seem'd to bloom a - new, The knew that I had won a love such as none else e'er knew;

 sky had nev - er, in the days gone by, seem'd quite so blue;

Just be - cause fair Na - ture smiled in all its re - gal splen - dor, My Just be - cause the breeze a song of fond-est love was sing - ing, I
