1. A crowd of good fel-lows, on plea - sure bent, Were seated to - geth - er, one
2. The crowd stopped to lis - ten and as, he sang, In ma - ny an eye there gleam'd night — When one of their num - ber a - rose and sang The la - test song tears, — The sing - er had touch'd them with that sweet song That ma - ny had for their de - light! — It start - ed dis - cus - sion on songs of all kinds, Each not heard in years! — And vis - ions of child - hood, and moth - er, so dear, Came there had a style he liked best _____ Some liked the songs a - bout home and back with that old cra-dle song _____ One touch of na - ture had thrilled the love, And oth - ers the songs of jest _____ From his seat in a cor - ner A hearts, Of ev - 'ry one in that throng _____ Sing it ov - er a - gain, Jack! They youth a - rose "You've cho - sen your fav'rites" said he _____ But where is the asked him then For tho' it was sim - ple and plain _____ No song of the song that will live as long as this one, That's so dear to me? _____

night gave them such de - light as they join'd in the sweet re - frain: _____

Chorus.

It's the song that I hear in my dreams — And the best that I ev - er heard —

— It will live in my mem'-ry for ev - er, I treas-ure it ev - 'ry word!

* "It's Rock-a-bye, Rock-a-bye, mother is near — Rock-a-bye, Rock-a-bye, nothing to fear." It's the song that was sung by my mother, dear, It's the song that I hear in my dreams! —

Words & Music by WALTER ROLFE.

Maine, dear old pine tree state, how oft my fond heart yearns —

Once a-gain to stroll a-mid the wood and tan - gled ferns —

In fan - cy I can hear the song birds sweet re - frain, And mel - o - dies of home sweet home A - mong the pines of Maine. —
