55- Children's Song -

Handwritten musical score for a children's song. The score is written on ten staves, with a treble and bass clef on the first staff. The lyrics are written below the notes. The song is in 2/4 time and has a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are: "there once was a rabbit, a happy rabbit was he! He lived in a briar patch all by himself. He never climbed a tree! For breakfast he had cabbages, he picked them for a while - For lunch and supper he had parsnips, as well. Many do he could steal! - But one summer night, in the middle of his meal he heard a awful groan! He listened very carefully and hopped right over East - Those parsnips he was eating were pretty near his last. For this in the bushes - was old Mr. Fox!! He growling and looking". There are some handwritten annotations like "Vell." and "Easter" in parentheses.
