POLKA RONDO.

G. D. WILSON. Op. 26

Tempo di Polka.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music. Each system has a treble staff and a bass staff. The key signature has two flats (B-flat major), and the time signature is 2/4. The tempo is marked 'Tempo di Polka.' The first system begins with a melody in the treble staff and a bass line in the bass staff. The second system continues the melody and bass line. The third system features a more complex bass line with many chords. The fourth system concludes the piece with a final chord. Pedal marks (ped.) and asterisks (*) are used throughout to indicate specific performance techniques. A first ending bracket is present in the first system, and a second ending bracket is present in the fourth system.

Revised according to Act of Congress, A. D. 1871, by WHITE & GOULD, in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

The image shows a piano score for a piece titled "Tripping thro' the Meadows. Polka Rondo." The score is written for piano (p) and consists of five systems of music. Each system has a treble and bass staff. The key signature is one flat (B-flat). The tempo is marked "Allegretto". The score includes various musical notations such as chords, single notes, and rests. Pedal markings ("ped.") and dynamic markings ("mf", "f") are present throughout. The piece ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.
