Music by
WILL E. DULMAGE

In dear days gone by when we On mem-o-rie's boat a - lived, you and I, In that beau-ti-ful land of dreams; — Then the gain let us float To the ha-ven where love holds sway, — With its clouds so gray would fast fade a-way, For the world was all sun-shine, it leaf-y bow'rs, its rare gold-en hours, When the sun bids fare-well to the seems. — As the sun went to rest, came the hour we loved best, With its day. — Twi-light shadows would throw o'er our love a soft glow, While the
