sail - or boy was filled with joy and all be - gan to shout:
like to bet when we have met They'll know they had a fight."

CHORUS well marked and not fast

"We're on our way to *Hel - i - go - land to get the Kais - er's goat, In a good old Yan-kee boat, up the Kiel ca-nal we'll float, I'm a son - of - a - gun if I see a Hun, I'll make him un - der - stand, We'll knock the Hel - i - go, in - to Hel - i - go, out of Hel - i - go - land. Yip!" "We're - land. Yip!"

You can't go wrong with any 'Feist' Song

The Four Big Song Hits!

You'll want them for your piano, talking machine, or player piano—why not get them now? They are sweeping the country. Everybody wants to hear them, to sing them, and to dance them. They've caught on strong.

Goodbye Broadway, Hello France!

Goodbye, Broadway, Hello France! When you play and sing this song, you'll know why the regiments on their way to France adopted it as their own. In the language of the boys—"It's got everything." The big hit of the New York Winter Garden and positively the biggest song hit of the year. A wonderful fox-trot or one-step. By Reisner, Davis, and Baskette.

Just try over the choruses printed below and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

Vaudeville performers are singing them in hundreds of cities to thousands and thousands of people who applaud vigorously, thus showing their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city as yet be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself, today.

Where Do We Go from Here?

Where Do We Go From Here? Another song that our soldier boys are singing everywhere—and most everybody else, too. The Phila. North American says: "The 'Tipperary' of 1917." It started out to be a funny song about 'Paddy Mack, who drove a hack'—but Paddy enlisted and his song struck the fancy of the soldiers. When some one says, "Where do we go from here?" you'll get his meaning. By Johnson and Wenrich.

I Called You "My Sweetheart." The hit of the supreme.
I Know I Got More Than My Share.
Keep Your Eye on the Girl You Love.
Ireland Must Be Heaven, for My Mother Came from There.
Don't Bite the Hand That's Feeding You. Better than ever.

Mother, Dixie and You

Mother, Dixie and You

A song of Dixieland. A beautiful melody wedded to words that are sure to take you back home. And not a sadly, sentimental song, either, but one that has life and spirit. Played quickly, it is an irresistible fox-trot. By Johnson and Santly.

There's Something in the Name of Ireland

There's Something in the Name of Ireland That the Whole World Seems to Love To some Ireland means home, to others it means love, to others it means a race of fighting men. But get this song and you'll get an idea why the world loves Ireland. A more beautiful melody hasn't been written in years. By Howard Johnson and Milton Ager.

Practically every music dealer in the United States and Canada will display these songs and reproductions of this advertisement in his window, so that you will know just where you can buy copies.

If you have any difficulty locating a dealer, however, you may order direct from us at 15c. each, or any seven for one dollar. Sent postpaid to any address in the world. A set of 5 attractive post cards FREE with all mail orders of $1.00 or over. Band or orchestra, 25c. each. Male quartette, 10c. each.

Your regular dealer can supply you with these songs for your talking machine or player-piano and any orchestra or band leader will be glad to play any of them for you if requested.

Be sure to hear them and don't miss the pleasure of dancing to these tuneful, fascinating melodies.
