WHEN

THEN I WILL MARRY YOU

Words by VIOLET B. ROBINSON

Music by
WINTHROP BROOKHOUSE

CHORUS.

The man that I wed must have money she said, And own hous-es and lands by the score, ——— They said I'm to mar-ry a prince or an earl, And not wed a man that's poor, ——— But when you have grown up to be a great man, If you make a mil-lion or two, ———

Then you can build a fine cas-tle for me, Then I will mar - ry you. ———

ONLY A WREATH OF ROSES.

Chorus.

As the night-in-gale calls to its mate, Mad - e - line Aft - er the day steals a - way Brightly the twinkling stars for you do gleam, O'er mead-ow lands where we did stray 'Tis then my heart's call-ing and long-ing so true, 'Tis then in the twilight I wait The evening breeze
