Now we must part, Heart of my Just one short line, Sweet-heart of heart. I can hear the bu-gle sound-ing with a call so clear! Till I re-mine, I am bat-ting for my coun-try far from home to - night. Though foes as - turn, My heart will yearn For the girl I leave be - hind me, In the home - land dear!

sail, Right must pre - vail, So keep knit-ting still and smil-ing, Till we win our fight!

line. When the war is done and the vic-to-ry won, I'll come back to the girl that I call mine! When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine." We will bind up two hearts that en-twine, Wed-ding bells will be ring-ing, "Home Sweet Home" will be sing-ing. When we wind up "The Watch on the Rhine!" When we Rhine!" D.C.

The Four Big Song Hits!

You'll want them for your piano, talking machine, or player piano—why not get them now? They are sweeping the country. Everybody wants to hear them, to sing them, and to dance them. They've caught on strong.

Goodbye Broadway, Hello France!

Goodbye Broadway, Hello France! When you play and sing this song, you'll know why the regiments on their way to France adopted it as their own. In the language of the boys—"It's got everything." The big hit of the New York Winter Garden and positively the biggest song hit of the year. A wonderful fox-trot or one-step. By Reisner, Davis and Baskette.

Just try over the choruses printed below and then you'll know why song experts consider these four songs in a class by themselves.

You've simply got to have them if you want to play and sing the latest and most popular tunes—the four really big hits of the year.

Vaudeville performers are singing them in hundreds of cities to thousands and thousands of people who applaud vigorously, thus showing their approval.

If you haven't heard them in your city as yet be sure to tell your Theatre Manager you would like to hear them sung. He will be glad to accommodate you. And get all four of them for yourself, today.

Where Do We Go from Here?

Where Do We Go From Here? Another song that our soldier boys are singing everywhere—and most everybody else, too. The Phila. North American says: "The Tipperary of 1917." It started out to be a funny song about "Paddy Mack, who drove a hack"—but Paddy enlisted and his song struck the fancy of the soldiers. When some one says, "Where do we go from here?" you'll get his meaning. By Johnson and Wenrich.

On Sale Today

At all music and department stores, or at any Woolworth, Kresge, Kress, McCrory, Kraft, Grant or Metropolitan store.

Mother, Dixie and You

Mother, Dixie and You A song of Dixieland. A beautiful melody wedded to words that are sure to take you back home. And not a sadly sentimental song, either, but one that has life and spirit. Played quickly, it is an irresistible fox-trot. By Johnson and Santly.

Other Popular 'Feist' Songs

These songs are printed in the new 'Feist' easy-to-read style. Complete song at a glance. No leaves to turn.

Twelve-o'clock Butcher.
At the "Yacht" Military Ball.
China, We Own a Lot to You. A New Society Song.
Hong Kong. The General melody you know everywhere.
Our Own Beloved Land. A brand new song about the United States.

Keep Your Eye on the Girls You Love.
Ireland Must Be Heaven for My Mother.
Come from There.
Down into the Heart That's Feeling You.
Never Again.

There's Something in the Name of Ireland

There's Something in the Name of Ireland That the Whole World Seems to Love To some Ireland means home, to others it means love, to others it means a race of fighting men. But get this song and you'll get an idea why the world loves Ireland. A more beautiful melody hasn't been written in years. By Howard Johnson and Milton Ager.

Practically every music dealer in the United States and Canada will display these songs and reproductions of this advertisement in his window, so that you will know just where you can buy copies.

If you have any difficulty locating a dealer, however, you may order direct from us at 15c. each, or any seven for one dollar. Sent postpaid to any address in the world. A set of 5 attractive post cards FREE
