Coons are ex-cit-ed-'bout a gal from Mo-bile, She just ar-rived the oth-er day.
It has been told a-bout that she's met her fate, 'Cause she will wed a mil-lion-aire.

She is a thor-ough-bred and al-ways gen teel, She's the real thing the dar-kies say.
Coons say they know its true for she's set the date, They say 'twill be a grand af-fair.

When she goes out a walk-ing coons have a chill Look at her with a jeal-ous frown She Brass bands will play the march in good old rag time She'll wear a thou-sand dol-lar gown And
