Oh! he's a great wee boy. I said to him, when he cam' in frae the schule the ither day, "How is you an' your teacher gettin' on noo, son?" He said, "Not very well, pa." I said, "What's the matter?" "Oh!" he said, "Because I couldna answer a question th' day; the teacher said, 'What is your head for, boy?' And I said, 'What did you say?' "Oh!" he said, "I told him it was for keeping on my collar."

He cam' in th' ither day roarin' like a bullock. I said, "What's the matter?" He said, "Ye remember the penny ye gave me this mornin'." I said, "I'm not likely to forget it!" "Well," he said, "It's lost!" So I gave him anither one. So he looked at it, slipped it into his pocket, and bunted oot roarin' like a couple o' bullocks. I said, "What's the matter?" He said, "If I hadn't lost the other penny, I would have had twopence now!" Oh! he's a great wee boy!
