Girl version: There's a cer-tain some-one that I know,— There's a cer-tain some-one I love so,— He's as sweet as Boy version: There's a cer-tain gir-lie that I know,— There's a cer-tain some-one I love so,— She's as sweet as he can be,— He's just like a dad-dy to me,— I am nev-er lone-some when he's near,— she can be,— Like a lit-tle moth-er to me,— By her grand pi-a - no all night long —

But when we're a part,— I try to be sweet to fel-lows I meet— But deep down in my heart;—
I could hear her play,— She vamps for a while, and then with a smile— She sings to me this way;

CHORUS

There's on-ly one that I would ev-er lose my sleep for, And thats for dad-dy, my dad; There's on-ly

one that I would sit up nights and weep for, He makes me hap-py when I'm feel-ing sad, I oft-en dance with the boys when we go out to dine,— But when they sug-gest to stay out aft-er nine, There's on-ly

But I have a rule to leave them flat at nine, Then who do you one that I would do that lit-tle thing for, And that's for dad-dy, that dad-dy of mine. There's on-ly mine.—

think that I go out and look a-round for, I look for dad-dy,
