Think Love Of Me

When the sun is setting low,

Think, Love, of me;

When the reapers homeward go,

Think, Love, of me;

When the deep'ning twilight falls,

Birds have gone to rest;

Then, Love, I feel thy head

Close to my breast.

When the day's hard task is o'er,

Think, Love, of me;

When the Angelus rings no more,

Think, Love, of me;

In the stillness of the night

When all nature sleeps;

Thou wilt know of one who waits,

Watches and weeps.

The Song that made Dorothy Lee

DOROTHY LEE, who is so dearly loved, and whose songs are sung "wherever people sing," first became known to music lovers through her great success "One Fleeting Hour."

A beautiful, melodious song, there is about it a wealth of human understanding which has made a wonderful irresistible appeal. The song eternal, it seems destined to live forever, for it is being sung more today than ever before. The countless thousands who love this quiet little woman of the West and her inspired music, love all of her songs, but none more than her immortal "One Fleeting Hour."
