There is a ve - ry old say - ing — "A word to the wise is e nough."

Lis-ten trif-lin' { pa-pa ma-ma While I do my stuff.

CHORUS

If you think of step-pin' out with- out your { ma-ma pa-pa { pa-pa bet-ter watch your { ma-ma

step. If I should ev-er catch you 'step-pin' 'round
Be ve-ry care-ful hon-ey 'cause you know

You'd bet-ter catch a choo choo leav-in' town. Love is blind—
I sure-ly took your feet out of the snow. Here and now

It's not dumb_ I don't want to, be your side track 'till your main line comes.
Let me warn_ Say, if you don't think I'm leav-ing count the days I'm gone.

I re-mem-ber on the day when I first met you You po-sessed a lone some time
You wore pa-tent leather shoes the day I met you In that cold and lone some town.

Dress'd up in a Palm Beach suit in the cold, cold win-ter
They were leather on the top, your bare feet patten' on the time. ground. You know my nas-ty tem-per, Be-ware of it. You've Don't ev-er think you own me 'Cause I'll al-low a When I rap on your front door Just look a-bout. If got good health, why don't you take care of it. So if you think of steppin' out with change of pas-ture is good for an-y cow I don't get in no-bod-y's com-ing out.

PATTER

I thought that you were as sweet as could be— But Came home last eve-ning with your broth-er Sam. But yes-ter-day you start-ed in to good time me. I gave you my kiss-es. I I was not too late to hear the back door slam. So lis-ten bad {pa-pa ma-ma} stop gave you my love, But step-pin's' just the fond-est thing that you are of.— step-pin' a round or else you're sure to find that you are graveyard bound.
