Suppose I Met You Face To Face.

Words and Music by
Chas. K. Harris.

Refrain.
Sup-pose I met you face to face. And heart to heart, my cheeks pink then, I won-der if your heart would beat, and would your smile be just as sweet. Sup-pose I'st pleased for one kind word. Would you then turn, from me say, good - bye, or would you

A collection of melodious Song and Instrumental numbers by famous composers. In this edition will be found compositions worthy of a place in the highest grade catalogues of the entire music world. Both songs and instrumental pieces will be a welcome edition to the repertoire of every music lover in the land. They are issued in an especially attractive manner, printed upon the best grade of paper and adorned with artistic frontis-pages.

Q This edition begins with Ten Publications, which will be increased from time to time by the compositions of America's best known composers.

Q The first ten numbers include Five Instrumental pieces by the famous European writer, ATELIER BEDOIS, a writer whose works are greatly admired and have a wonderful vogue throughout Europe. He has lately been placed under contract to write exclusively for Mr. Harris and his works will be found in no other edition.

Q Three of the first published numbers in the Harris Edition are by the well-known writer CARO ROMA. Also compositions by the eminent American composer FREDRIC WATSON.

These Numbers Are Exceptionally Melodious and Are Highly Recommended for Teaching Purposes
