GRANT PROPOSAL- Cultural Affairs/DLS Fund

Spring Dance Concert

April 29th and 30th, 2011

Dance classes are extremely popular with students and enrollments and attendance have gone up. Consequently, there are always waiting lists for students to enroll in classes, particularly beginning classes, as well as lines in the lobby at the performances. This is due to the efforts of our professional faculty and staff, who make dance at UM a significant learning experience that rounds out a student's education. Dance classes culminate in actual dance concert performances that feature jazz, ballet, tap, modern, hip hop, and international themes.

The dance program has evolved from a works-in-progress presentation in Minsky Recital Hall in the Fall and a dance concert at Hauck Auditorium in the Spring to two full-fledged Hauck shows per year, plus four Emerging Dance Works showcases. Emerging Dance events were created to give aspiring student choreographers the chance to exhibit works-in-progress in an informal setting as well as providing an opportunity for individual dancers to test their performance skills in a more relaxed and supportive atmosphere.

We are requesting $1,000 in funding from Cultural Affairs Committee funds to support the areas of costume, publicity, programs, lighting, and props. We have received funds from the College of LAS to pay fees for the artistic director and the lighting designer.

GRANT SUMMARY- Cultural Affairs Committee

Dance Productions

2010-2011

The Dance productions for the 2010-2011 season were an outstanding success. The Fall and Spring Concerts, together with the four emerging works showcases provided creative outlets for our students interested in dance, as well as provided significant entertainment for our audiences. The Fall Dance Concert and Emerging Works Concerts had respectable turnouts, and figures are not available for these since we do not run a box office for them. The Annual Spring Concert played to approximately 830 people during its two performance run.
