School Song.

Words and Melody by E. W. Locke.

Arranged by Thomas P. I. Magoun.

Play first eight measures for Symphony.

ALLEGRETTO.

SONG.

1. Come, School-mates, let us take our books, And think no more of play - - - ; With
2. We come to seek, from week to week, What knowledge we may gain - - - ; And
3. Now let us seize, like bu - sy bees, The mo - ments as they fly - - - ; For cheer - ful hearts and so - ber looks, We'll stu - dy while we may. We'll shun the wrong, pur - sue the right, And ev - 'ry day we hope to say, We do not come in vain. There's time for work, there's time for mirth, But he who tries, may win a prize, That mon - ey will not buy; And cheer - ful, cheer - ful, on our way, We'll work with might and main - - - ; And when the rec - ord's made at night, The leaf shall show no stain:

none for strife or broil - - - ; We'll bend our minds to things of worth, And strengthen them with toil:
work with might and main - - - ; And when the Sun looks in each day, He'll find no i - dle brain:

CHORUS.

So all hands stu - dy - , And throw no time a - way - - ; Youth

So all hands stu - dy - , And throw no time a - way - - ; Youth will not last, it hur - ries past, So stu - dy while we may.
