THE PIANO TEACHERS MANUAL

AN INDISPENSABLE GUIDE THROUGH THE LITERATURE OF PIANO MUSIC; GRADED AND CLASSIFIED ACCORDING TO PRACTICAL AND MOST APPROVED PEDAGOGICAL OUTLINES; BASED UPON THE EXPERIENCE AND THEORIES OF FAMOUS PIANISTS, TEACHERS AND PEDAGOGES

PRICE 30 CENTS NET

This Manual has been issued in response to a very insistent and definite demand on the part of teachers of piano for a list of piano music which at any given point shall supplement work in technical studies. Every phase of pianistic art is developed in progressive order, through all the grades, by music varying in difficulty from the easiest to what will satisfy the most exacting requirements of the virtuoso.

A noteworthy feature of the catalogue is the Index, which is very complete and at the same time so concisely arranged as to clearly indicate the style of composition, together with its grade. With the aid of this Index the teacher will be able to find at a glance just the music he wishes, illustrative of the particular phase of piano technique in which he happens at the moment to be interested.
