THE WORDS

I

I'm just a Pinin' since you went away,
Wishin' and wondrin' through the lonesome day;
'til night brings the hour of starlight and dew,
Then love sends my day-dreams on their way to you

II

Seems like a year since you first went away,
Though Mammy knows it's only been a day;
The sunshine is gone and skies weep with rain,
For home can't be home 'til you come back again.

REFRAIN

Pinin' for you, blue as can be,
Mem'ries come one by one like waves of the sea;
My heart's calling for you, tender and true,
For I'm Pinin', "Ma honey," Pinin' Just For You.
