It is not of - ten I com - plain, but now I'm dri - ven most in sane. And I guess she on - ly knows one word, 'cause this is all I've ev - er heard, so I've got to tell my tale of woe. Some things hap - pen'd to my girl, Gim - me, gim - me, morn - ing noon and night. Makes no dif - f'rence what I say, Seems her head is in a whirl. Where its going to lead to I dont know.

She will an - swer just that way If she keeps it up ther'll be a fight,

CHORUS

She's got the Gim - mes, She's got the Gim - mes, It's Gim - me this! Gim - me that!

I thank the Lord when she gets out of my sight — For ev'ry sin - gle time I kiss her good night

— she whis-pers Gim-me, — Oh! Jim-mie, Gim-me — Just a lit-tle love a lit-tle kiss for mine —

When I said I'd save my mon-ey and make her my wife — She said "Dear, that does-n't mean a thing in my young life"
 I don't know what to do for her to make her glad — She wants a - bout a mil-lion things and wants em bad
 She was - n't sat - is - fied to get a dia-mond ring — She said I want a lot of love n' ev - 'ry - thing

— She's got the Gim - mes — The Gim - me Gim - mes — It's Gim - me, Gim - me, all of the time. — She's got the time. —
