How sweet the

air. — Spring — is sing - ing in my heart. —

f p

Spring, sweet spring, laugh-ing smil - ing spring! Per - fum - ing the hours, A Spring, sweet spring, laugh-ing smil - ing spring! The mur - mur - ing breeze, The myr - iad of flow'rs Are bloom - ing to wel - come thee spring! — From the whis - per - ing trees Re - joic - ing - ly wel - come thee spring! — Thy — brown earth they creep, just a - wak - ing from sleep To laugh in the sun-shine with breath wakes the stream, From its long win - ter dream To laugh in the sun-shine with thee. Oh! pleas-ant their task In the sun - light to bask There thee. The song of the bird Is ev - ry - where heard Me - laugh - ing, re - joic - ing with thee, With thee fair Spring, with lo - dious - ly sing ing of thee, Of thee fair Spring, of thee sweet Spring, With laugh ing, smil - ing Spring!

thee fair Spring, Of laugh - ing, smil - ing Spring!

Valse lento.
