ROSEBELL SCHOTTISCHE.

PIERRE LATOUR.

The musical score is written for piano and consists of four systems of music. Each system is in 2/4 time and begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The first system starts with a piano (p) dynamic marking. The notation includes a variety of rhythmic patterns, such as eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. The second and fourth systems are marked with a repeat sign at the end. The third system is preceded by a dashed line and the number 8, indicating a repeat of the previous system. The fourth system is also preceded by a dashed line and the number 8, indicating another repeat. The score is written in a clear, legible style with standard musical notation.

A handwritten musical score on five systems of grand staves (treble and bass clef). The notation is in a historical style, featuring various note values, rests, and dynamic markings. The first four systems show a complex interplay between the two staves, with the right hand often playing melodic lines and the left hand providing harmonic support. The fifth system is marked 'TRIO.' and begins with a 'p' (piano) dynamic. The paper is aged and shows some wear.

I'M DYING FOR SOME ONE TO LOVE ME.

Words and Music by Eastburn. 40

I'm dying for some one to love me,
To call me his lad, his own;
I can't bear the thought of remaining
Forever on earth all alone.
I want to be called pet and sweetheart;
I want to be loved and caressed,
I want to be cared for in earnest,
For ailing I'er shall desert.

This song is meeting with great success.

THAT YOUNG MAN ACROSS THE WAY.

Words by Katie B. Wickmann, Music by E. Mack. 40

Well, I wonder what's his meaning,
Always looking over here,—
When I'm at the parlor window,
He is sure then to appear.
Ev'ry evening as I sit there,
Just before the close of day,
There he is, with roguish glances,
Watching me across the way.

For the last three or four years this piece has had a large and increasing sale.

NOW OR NEVER.

Words by Katie B. Wickmann, Music by E. Mack. 40

She looked at me with laughing eyes,
And said:—"My friend, if ever
You've got a duty to be done—
Then do it now or never!"
"Sweet Sage," I said, "three wishes then
To gain is my endeavor;
And since you give such good advice,
I'll win them 'now or never'."

TWO BEAUTIFUL TEMPERANCE SONGS. THE CLOUDS OF INTemperance ARE PASSING AWAY.

Words by A. W. French, Music by Chas. D. Blake. 40

Oh! the clouds of intemperance are passing away,
And the sunlight is shining at last;
How long have we watch'd for this glorious day,
In wearisome hours of the past,
For the skies they were darken'd with grief and despair,
Not a glimmer of hope's cheering ray;
Now the pitying angels have answer'd our pray'r,
And intemperance is passing away.

THE DRUNKARD'S DREAM.

Darrest, you look so healthy now,
Your clothes are neat and clean,
I never see you drink about,
Come tell me where you've been;
Your wife and children now are well,
You once did treat them strange,
Oh! have you kinder to them grown,
How came this happy change?

A most beautiful and affecting ballad, dedicated to the Good Templars throughout the country.

FIVE

Beautiful and Popular Songs.

By H. P. DANKS, the Successful Song Writer.

OH, WHERE ARE YOU ROAMING?

Words by John T. Ruffledge,
Music by H. P. Danks. 40

Little Darling, oh, where are you roaming?
I'm sighing and longing to know,
Oh, why don't you come to the gloaming?
You promised you would long ago.
I've call'd for you, love, long and lonely,
My calling was only in vain,
I've thought, love, of you and you only,
Oh, why don't you meet me again?

PARTING ON THE SHORE.

Words by Geo. M. Vickers, Music by H. P. Danks. 35

The dew is softly falling,
Weeping for the day,
The ship-poor-will is calling,
Forth its mournful lay;
Methinks it too is grieving,
Alas perhaps like me!
Yet hearts are so deceiving,
'Tis better to be free;
Yet hearts are so deceiving,
'Tis better to be free.

ONLY DREAMING.

Words by Geo. M. Vickers, Music by H. P. Danks. 40

- CONTRALTO. Beautiful Melody.

The wild-birds are singing,
The merry bells are ringing,
All the world seems full of glee!
But my poor heart is aching,
And my poor heart is breaking,
For Jamie's pray'd false to me.
E'en now to the wedding,
While bitter tears I'm shedding,
They enter the old church door—
Where oft in my dreaming,
With bright visions beaming,
I have seen the bride before.

I HAVE SEEN A FAIRY.

Words by Fygnad, Music by H. P. Danks. 35

I have seen a fairy,
Beauteous as the morn,
Joyous as the summer,
Radiant as the dawn;
Haunting all my visions,
Ever in my dreams,
Like a heavenly angel,
Charming me she seems.

IS YOUR HEART STILL TRUE TO ME?

Words by James A. Bartley, Music by H. P. Danks.

Sweet, is your heart still true to me,
In your far peaceful home?
I ask as wand'ring where you move,
I search the starry dome;
Do thoughts of me, as once of old,
In that pure bosom dwell,
And does your heart its love still long
In whispers low to tell?

FIVE GEMS.

By Charles D. Blake, the Popular Author.

CLING TO ME, LITTLE ONE.

Words by Arthur W. French,
Music by Chas. D. Blake. 40

Cling to me, little one, ever,
Earth will be fairer with you;
Storms of this life cannot sever
Hearts that have sworn to be true.
I shall need some hand to guide me
Over the troublesome way;
Little one, linger beside me,
Cling to me night and by day.

HAPPY LAND BRIGHT AND FAIR.

Words by Albert A. Hill,
Music by Charles D. Blake. 40

There are shadowy hands waving welcome,
As our bark nears your bright golden shore;
There are voices of saints chanting welcome,
Loving voices of friends gone before.

I WILL DREAM, DARLING, OF THEE.

Words by Albert A. Hill, Music by Charles D. Blake.

My boat's on the beach in the cove, darling,
I must go when my shipmates shall hail;
With the first golden streak of the dawn, darling,
For a far off time my good ship will sail;
Then smile once again thro' your tears, darling,
Like a rainbow of promise for me,
And each night as we dance o'er the waves, darling,
I will dream, fondly dream, love, of thee.

BEAUTIFUL THOUGHTS LINGER NEAR ME.

Words by Samuel N. Mitchell,
Music by Charles D. Blake. 40

Beautiful thoughts linger near me,
Sweetest of visions appear,
Bearing their gladness to cheer me
Every bright day of the year;
Velvety voices are bringing
Tidings delightful to hear,
Heavenly angels are singing,
Beautiful thoughts linger near.

FAIRY FORMS IN DREAMS I SEE.

Words by Samuel N. Mitchell,
Music by Charles D. Blake. 40

When the darkness falls around us,
And all nature seems at rest,
Then a peaceful sleep o'ercomes me,
Bringing in some welcome guest;
Faces that I fondly cherish'd
Come again to smile on me,
And until the morning dawneth
Fairy forms in dreams I see.

FOUR NEW SONGS.

THAT ARE SURE OF A LARGE SALE.

All by leading and well known Writers.

MOONLIGHT ON THE LAKE.

Solo and Quartette Chorus.

Arranged from C. A. White's popular Quartette. 40

Come away, come away, O! come where the silv'ry waves break,
O! come, O! come, there's moonlight on the lake,
There's moonlight on the lake, the sun has gone to rest,
The birds have call'd their lov'd, have call'd their lov'd ones to their nest.

TAKE ME BACK TO HOME AND MOTHER.

Words by Arthur W. French,
Music by Wm. A. Hantley. 40

Take me back to home and mother,
I am weary wand'ring here,
There can never be another
Spot on earth that is so dear.
The 'I roam' mid scenes of splendor,
Yet my heart is fill'd with pain,
And a longing, sad and tender,
Whispers take me back again.

This song and chorus must undoubtedly become popular, as the words are well wedded to the music, which is written in a flowing and effective manner.

SWEET DAYS GONE BY.

Words by Samuel Callan, Music by John S. Cor. 40

There is hope in the sweet by-and-by,
As we're nearing to life's other shore,
Yet the heart oft will turn with a sigh
To a vision of days that are o'er.
How fond mem'ry will bring back again
Many scenes that our childhood passed by,
The old home, meadow, brook and lake,
In the time of the sweet days gone by.

TELL ME, DARLING, THAT YOU LOVE ME.

Words and Music by J. E. Hogerson. 40

Tell me, darling, that you love me,
Place your little hand in mine—
Breaths in accents soft and tender,
Say love, I am only thine.
For my heart is ever yearning
For the glance of thy bright eyes;
All the world thou art to me, love,
Thy bright smile my dearest prize.
