"MAY-BE."

This is the sweet-melodied love song which has become so popular in concert and drawing room. As the feature song of the Primrose and Dockstader Minstrels, it has won great favor everywhere. Be sure and try it over on your piano, and order a complete copy from your music dealer.

CHORUS.

May be in the gold - en Sum - mer, When the ros - es bloom a - gain;

Love may steal in - to your heart, dear, May be you will love me then; .

Ped.

May be in the drear - y Win - ter, When the storm sweeps land and sea.

May be in the gen - tle spring - time, May be, you will say, May be.

EVERYBODY WAS ASKING WHAT IT WAS!

The famous bandmaster, John Philip Sousa, "discovered" a very catchy two-step, and is featuring it at every concert. It proved an overwhelming success and for a while NO ONE KNEW ITS NAME. After going into music stores and whistling it, they found that it was
