THE DAY

THE day moves fast; there's work to do:
In busy marts are striving men
Intent on winning wealth and fame
Not merely for some selfish ends
But rather for the good of all:
To care for loved ones first, 'tis true,
Then, stretching out a helping hand
To aid the poor, the world's Crushed Down.

The day goes on; away at school
Small boys and girls pore over books
In study that will serve them well
When they go out to fight their way.
At home the scores of household tasks
That start in with the rise of sun
Mean plan and effort without end
For woman's work is never done.

The day is short; the shadows fall
On desks and shops and fertile fields,
And Night bids Work make way for Rest.
The day is done, and at its close
Sonora's music, bell-clear plays
The songs that memory holds most dear
The gay fox trot, the dreamy waltz
And everything we like to hear.

A tone as brilliant as the sparkle of gems and as sweet as an old love song—as clear as the Sabbath church bells' chimes and as true as the ring of a gong—this is Sonora's tone, which was awarded the highest score at the Panama-Pacific Exposition.

Sonora is made for those who want the best—for those to whom quality is the leading attraction.
