TILL READY

She came from a town near Bos-ton, Pris-sil-la She dressed, oh, so plain and sim-ple, She showed a Aus-tin, it was her name, 'Twas Bos-ton that she got lost in, But get-ting dim-ple when she would speak, Her voice was a soft low rip-ple, Her ac-tions lost was her fav-rite game. For some young fel-low al-ways came and were ver-y shy and meek. To hear her talk, you sure-ly thought, she found her bye and bye, With head up-on his shoul-der how she'd sob and sigh and cry.
was New Eng-land's pride, Her fav-rite drink was, was, that is, just wa-ter on the side.
