Some - where in France in "No mans Land," is some While there in France in "No mans Land," some - ones moth - ers son; Fight - ing for free - dom 'cause his coun - try needs him, rt is sore; Do - ing his best, and pray - ing with the rest, that

'till the bat - tle is won; He dreams of his moth - er and this war soon will be oer; But think of the moth - ers who ones he left be - hind, But still there is an - oth - er whos al - ways in his mind.

pray and wait in vain, Hop - ing that their son will come back home soon a - gain.

Chorus.

Some moth - ers' daugh - ter is lone - some — for some moth - ers' son in France; — He's fight - ing for you, fight - ing for me, tak - ing a sol - diers' chance; — Her heart is break - ing, her heart is ach - ing, long - ing for one fond glance; — Some moth - ers' daugh - ter is lone - some — for some moth - ers' son in France. France.
