MY hour comes when the twilight falls,
And birds turn home to rest;
My hour comes when your voice dear calls,
When dims the glowing west;
For then I'll know the sunset's bliss,
The peace of evening calm,
When in the dusk I'll feel your kiss,
And round me steals your arm.

My hour is such a hallowed thing,
A precious pearl it seems;
My hour to which my heart will cling
When fade my rainbow dreams;
And in that hour when life is o'er
And your lips seek mine, too,
My soul on wings of love will soar,
A-thanking God for you.
