Re - mem - ber your word Un - cle Sam - my, The They're not ask - ing much of you Sam - my, It's Re - mem - ber their dear sweet old Moth - er, Al -

The vocal melody is written on a single staff with lyrics underneath. The piano accompaniment is on two staves below the vocal line.

day that our boys marched a - way, They on - ly what's hon - est and right, While tho her poor heart it did break, She

The vocal melody continues with the second verse. The piano accompaniment remains consistent with the previous systems.

gave up their lives, Their sweet hearts and wives, To you stayed at home, They sailed cross the foam, Died gave up her boy, Her hope, pride and joy, Who fight for their dear U. S. A. You so as to live that you might, God died for his dear count - ry's sake, She's prom - ised to care for them Sam - my, There's bless them they're help - less tho hap - py, Still no one to care for or help her, She's one thing at least you might do, ——— They've fin - ished a task, they're proud of their Red, White and Blue, ——— Oh God it's a shame, some - wink - led and lone - some to - day, ——— Your prom - ise ful - fill pass free now to ask, A job Sam so it's up to you. ——— one is to blame, A - mer - i - ca it's up to you. ——— that bon - us bill, A - mer - i - ca what do you say. ———

CHORUS

They've fin - ished their jobs ov - er there Sam, ———

Now for a job ov - er here, ——— Lest you for - get, re - mem - ber the vet, Who proud - ly marched off a - mid cheers, Ov - er there, ev - ery where, sleeps a loved one dear, They fin - ished their jobs ov - er there Sam, Now give them a job ov - er here.
